i have written many books and articles on various topics but since 2013 i have devoted myself fully in writing the interpretation of the holy quran in english and with the grace of allah i have completed the whole quran on 29th october 2020 with 84 books i believe there is a great need in the whole world for the correct interpretation of the holy quran to be written in english currently there is a great misunderstanding about islam among muslims and non muslims globally the misunderstanding of the meaning of the holy quran among muslims will lead to the wrong practice of islam which leads to the wrong actions of muslims the wrong actions of muslims will lead to misunderstandings about islam among muslims and non muslims the wrong actions of the muslims have led to many miseries and wars among muslims the wrong actions of muslims have also led to many wars and clashes between muslims and non muslims in order to avoid miseries wars and clashes from taking place between the whole mankind in the whole world the whole mankind in the whole world need to understand the true teaching of islam there is no other way for the whole mankind to understand the true teaching of islam unless the whole mankind is able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran the whole mankind is only able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran when it is written in the universal language of the world english for this very reason i have written the interpretation of the holy quran in english prof nasoha bin saabin

students of the bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples matt 28 19 indeed most of them would argue that the gospel writer matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the great commission matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching this point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples matt 28 19 and not to the entire gospel of matthew for the meaning of the command this book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of christian disciple making rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning this problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that matthew establishes a framework within the great commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his gospel and that the gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command reading and textual interpretation are ordinary human activities performed inside as well as outside academia but precisely how they function as unique sources of knowledge is not well understood in this book rené van woudenberg explores the nature of reading and interpretation distinct from perception and attending to testimony which are two widely acknowledged knowledge sources after distinguishing seven accounts of interpretation van woudenberg discusses the question of whether all reading inevitably involves interpretation and shows that although reading and interpretation often go together they are distinct activities he goes on to argue that both reading and interpretation can be paths to realistically conceived truth and explains the conditions under which we are justified in believing that they do indeed lead us to the truth along the way he offers clear and novel analyses of reading meaning interpretation and interpretative knowledge in this book leading scholars from every relevant field report on all aspects of compositionality the notion that the meaning of an expression can be derived from its parts understanding how compositionality works is a central element of syntactic and semantic analysis and a challenge for models of cognition it is a key concept in linguistics and philosophy and in the cognitive sciences more generally and is without question one of the most exciting fields in the study of language and mind the authors of this book report critically on lines of research in different disciplines revealing the connections between them and highlighting current problems and opportunities the force and justification of compositionality have long been contentious first proposed by frege as the notion that the meaning of an expression is generally determined by the meaning and syntax of its components it has since been deployed as a constraint on the relation between theories of syntax and semantics as a means of analysis and more recently as underlying the structures of representational systems such as computer programs and neural architectures the oxford handbook of compositionality explores these and many other dimensions of this challenging field it will appeal to researchers and advanced students in linguistics and philosophy and to everyone concerned with the study of language and cognition including those working in neuroscience computational science and bio informatics
